

English Group

Every Wednesday from 1:30-3:30

Break at 2:15-2:30

➤ Beginner Level:

At the lower level of the English Group children come in once a week and engage in conversations in English with their fellow students and also do various activities that involve listening, speaking, reading and writing in English.

Some of the activities are as follows:

- Show and Tell
  - (children bring in something from home and talk to the class about the item)
- Extension activities on various story books
- Take home a reading book each week
- Homework to follow up on the class lessons

➤ Intermediate Level:

This class is for children with an intermediate level of English who desire to refine and improve their communication skills in English. The class is primarily conversation based where children are encouraged to speak, listen and question in a safe and supportive environment. Through various themed projects students will have the opportunity to:

- Read and comprehend English texts
- Explore and practice writing various genres of texts
  - (ie. Reports, stories, instructions etc.)
- Participate in individual oral and groups presentations
- Learn basic grammar and spelling
